THE NEED OF CO AND EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Activities-Academic and Non-academic - are the lifeblood for a School curriculum. Academics, most important though that may be, does not make education complete by itself. Therefore, Rajeshwari Karuna School Tuli lays great emphasis on co and extracurricular activities. The School curriculum is judiciously assorted with academic activities for the overall growth of the mind, body, and spirit of the students. The varied activity is well integrated with the academic calendar and academic session that they are held as a matter of routine without in any way hampering the academic session thereby, ensuring active participation from all students.

Over the year, the School conducts activity on recitation competitions to develop communication skills, spelling contests are organized to help students with their pronunciation and enrich their vocabulary. The story, letter, essay, and poem writing contests are organized to give them the opportunities for self-expression, communicate effectively, and to develop critical thinking skills. Other areas the students compete in singing, dancing, art, and painting which allows them to give expression to their creative talents.

On every first and fourth Saturday, a wide range of activities is held inside the school premises to ensure that children muscle their way in a competitive spirit and learn to work as a team, accommodate and assimilate with others- Crafts such as flower, frame, and basket making, and sports activities include basketball, volleyball, badminton, handball, etc.

Extra and co-curricular activities provide variety to an otherwise dull and monotonous routine of academic life. These activities keep students to be mentally, emotionally and physically fit and healthy.
